What is the Trinity?

Father, Son and Holy Spirit
Christians believe in one God and they believe that Jesus Christ was his son who died in order to bring humans salvation from sin. A key belief of most Christians is the belief in the Trinity - Father, Son and Holy Spirit, who were all present at the Creation of the world and who all take on different roles.

God the Father shows Christians that in the same way a parent might create and nurture a life, God cares about his Creation and wants to protect it. God crafted a universe he loves, and he will provide for his Creation. Ultimately, God is the Creator of all life.

God the Son helps Christians to understand how God makes his love known in the world. Jesus spread teachings of Compassion and healed people who were sick. The life of Jesus, as described in the Gospels, also demonstrates that sacrifice and suffering are important parts of the human experience.

Why do Christians believe in God?

- Bible
- Religious experience
- Afterlife
- Miracles
- Upbringing

Why is the Trinity important?

Christianity is a monotheistic religion, which means that believing in the oneness of God is very important. The oneness of God is referred to in the Old Testament, and Jesus also reminds his followers of the importance of believing in only one God.

The oneness of God is a central Christian belief as it reflects the oneness of the universe God created. Christians believe the universe follows one set of laws.

The Holy Spirit

God the Holy Spirit helps Christians to understand the idea that God is always present in the world. This is a source of strength to most Christians as they feel God is always with them.

Atheist views about God

- Big bang not God
- Evolution not Adam and Eve
- No scientific evidence
- No afterlife
- Existence of Evil

How would the Trinity be seen in a church?

The concept of the Trinity is often referred to during worship, which helps Christians to understand it. For example:

The Nicene Creed is recited during every service of Holy Communion. Significant events such as baptisms and marriages are performed in the name of the Trinity. Some Christians, for example Catholics, make the sign of the cross and speak the name of the Trinity when they enter a church.

How might a Christian might respond to God?

- Charity
- Reading the Bible
- Going to church
- Going on a pilgrimage
- Learning about Christianity
